'BLUE MORNING' – Original Single CD Released November 2014
b/w. 'Sweet Flash Annie' (Live at the Axedale Tavern Victoria Australia)

Pacific Blues Union are an Australian blues rock band with a professional approach to their music providing strong electro/acoustic rhythmic overtones, tight vocal harmonies and soaring lead and slide guitar. Procuring it's repertoire from the blues, blues rock and good times music spanning over 5 decades.

Sounds like the Rolling Stones meets Muddy Waters and BB King sitting along side Howlin' Wolf, Stevie Ray and Chuck with a mix of well known blues and blues-rock songs and also original songs including their recently released single 'Blue Morning' currently getting radio airplay on blues radio around the country.

Formed in 2012 by singer/songwriter/guitarist Phill Raymond and, after some brief but intense rehearsal, the bands first shows were as support act to, and backing band for, Phil Manning, guitarist for the legendary Australian blues band CHAIN, and also support to top Australian band SPECTRUM.

Since then the band have been cutting the circuit hard with a steady stream of music work and have played along side other top acts from the Australian Blues scene such as, Bo Jenkins, Salty Dog, Dave Diprose and a return show with Phil Manning in July 2013.

Pacific Blues Union have over 40 years music experience among it's members and delivers a professional show of good times Blues & Blues Rock that will inject excitement into your venue, party, next event or occasion.
